

7th Sunday of Ordinary Time • Feb 23, 2025 • Tri-Parish Bulletin

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” Lk 6:35-36

Seventh Sunday Ordinary Time

We all inherit some degree of evil from our earthly forebears. It's easy to feel doomed to repeat their darkneses. But we're not so doomed, thank God. This week's Gospel proclaims this. Whatever good or bad we received from our parents, we have a more definitive and perfect inheritance in God. Jesus commands us, "Be merciful just as your Father is merciful" (Luke 6:36). We have a perfect Father in heaven and are destined to inherit and reflect that perfect and merciful love. We have an inheritance of light, not darkness, and thus a whole new possibility of magnanimous love. Like any inheritance, this is a free gift to us. What are we destined to repeat? Not the darkness of our earthly parents. We are destined to be a reflection of God's life. Jesus liberates us from the inevitability of repeating whatever evils and imperfections are in our familial or cultural upbringings. It's time to claim that perfect inheritance.

Father John Muir

Have you ever made a pronouncement about a particular person's behavior, only to be humiliated when someone reminded you to stop judging? I have, and it was painful. The result, though, is that I am very cautious now about making derogatory remarks about people. Over time, that practice of being very careful about saying ugly things about people has made me less judgmental.

The discipline to guard our tongues against gossip is a strength that can go the distance throughout our lifetimes. Looking back, how grateful are you that you held your tongue when you were angry? I can think of so many uncharitable things that have floated across my brain at different times, but that, through God's grace alone, I never said out loud. If you are kind, you will receive kindness. The Master Teacher shows us how to live.

Dear Parish Family, (Holy Family)

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to each of you who attended my presentation and took the time to provide feedback. Your insights and encouragement mean so much to me. I truly appreciate your thoughtful comments, both the positive and the areas for improvement. They will help me grow and become a better speaker and servant to our parish community. It was an honor to share my journey and the importance of the diaconate with you. I'm grateful for your support, and I look forward to continuing to learn and grow alongside all of you. With sincere thanks and blessings, Brice Glasscock

Holy Family Altar and Rosary Meeting Date Change

The meeting has been moved to the first Monday of each month. The first meeting on this new schedule will be Monday, March 3rd. Due to a scheduling conflict, the meeting will start at 4:30 pm followed by Solemn Vespers at 5:30 instead of the Rosary. The regular monthly meetings will begin with saying the Rosary at 5:00 pm and the meeting will follow at 5:30. Please join us.
